A woman after God's own heart

During the month of March, our focus switches to another important group in our church; namely the women. This group plays a vital role in the families, in church and indeed in our society. Unfortunately, often we take the women and the role that they play for granted. Furthermore, we forget that despite the fact that they are constantly serving others, they have needs of their own. Let us therefore spare a thought for our women and remember them before the Lord in prayer.

The theme chosen by our ladies is “the woman after God's own heart”! Allow me to highlight two important observations from the theme. The first one is the fact that there is a certain type of women that the Lord is looking for or put it another way the Lord desires that women live in a certain way in order to please Him. The Bible has a lot of examples of such women and among them are Sarah, Ruth, Rahab, Hannah, Eunice, Priscilla and Mary the mother of the Lord.

The second observation on the theme is the desire of our women at Nkana East Chapel to become women after the heart of God. This indeed is in line with God's desire for his children. It is important that as the women have set this as their goal for this year, they take the necessary steps to ensure that they do all they can to realize this noble aim. It is also important to note that the women will need the support and encouragement of the rest of the members of the body of Christ to achieve the transformation. Prayer is key to this and therefore, everyone is encouraged to pray for the women especially in the month of March.
